

Smithsonian Institution

National Museum of African American History and Culture

Catalogue of the Hampton Institute, 1886-87

Extracted on Mar-28-2024 08:44:35

The Smithsonian Institution thanks all digital volunteers that transcribed and reviewed this material. Your work enriches Smithsonian collections, making them available to anyone with an interest in using them.

The Smithsonian Institution (the "Smithsonian") provides the content on this website (transcription.si.edu), other Smithsonian websites, and third-party sites on which it maintains a presence ("SI Websites") in support of its mission for the "increase and diffusion of knowledge." The Smithsonian invites visitors to use its online content for personal, educational and other non-commercial purposes. By using this website, you accept and agree to abide by the following terms.

- If sharing the material in personal and educational contexts, please cite the National Museum of African American History and Culture as source of the content and the project title as provided at the top of the document. Include the accession number or collection name; when possible, link to the National Museum of African American History and Culture website.
- If you wish to use this material in a for-profit publication, exhibition, or online project, please contact National Museum of African American History and Culture or transcribe@si.edu

For more information on this project and related material, contact the National Museum of African American History and Culture. See this project and other collections in the Smithsonian Transcription Center.

HAMPTON INSTITUTE 45

DISCIPLINE

Courtesy and mutual forbearance are expected of both pupils and teachers, as indispensable to good discipline.

Students are subject to prompt suspension or discharge for an unsatisfactory course in respect to either study, conduct or labor, or on a third "warning." Five zero marks amount to one "warning." Low or profane language will subject a student to severe discipline. Students are liable to fine, reprimand, confinement or other necessary discipline.

The use of ardent spirits and tobacco is prohibited while connected with the school either on or off the grounds; also card-playing.

Students are not allowed to retain firearms in their possession. The Commandant will retain and receipt for any brought.

Letter writing is subject to regulation.

Wardrobes and rooms of all students are subject to inspection and regulation by the proper officers.

Students are subject to drill, guard duty, and training with or without arms. Those who are suspended will not be permitted to remain at the Institute while waiting for funds to take them home.

Students are not allowed to leave School premises without permission.

PUBLIC WORSHIP.

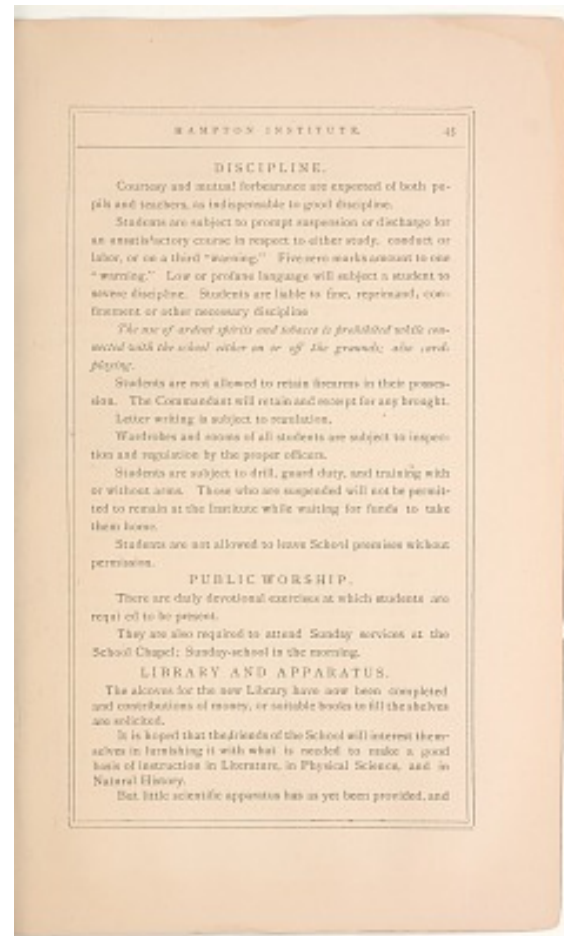

There are daily devotional exercises at which students are required to be present.

They are also required to attend Sunday services at the School Chapel; Sunday-school in the morning.

LIBRARY AND APPARATUS.

The alcoves for the new Library have now been completed and contributions of money, or suitable books to fill the shelves are solicited. It is hoped that the friends of the School will interest themselves in furnishing it with what is needed to make a good basis of instruction in Literature, in Physical Science, and in Natural History.

But little scientific apparatus has as yet been provided, and

Catalogue of the Hampton Institute, 1886-87
Transcribed and Reviewed by Digital Volunteers
Extracted Mar-28-2024 08:44:35

Smithsonian Institution

National Museum of African American History and Culture

The mission of the Smithsonian is the increase and diffusion of knowledge - shaping the future by preserving our heritage, discovering new knowledge, and sharing our resources with the world. Founded in 1846, the Smithsonian is the world's largest museum and research complex, consisting of 19 museums and galleries, the National Zoological Park, and nine research facilities. Become an active part of our mission through the Transcription Center. Together, we are discovering secrets hidden deep inside our collections that illuminate our history and our world.

Join us!

The Transcription Center: <https://transcription.si.edu>

On Facebook: <https://www.facebook.com/SmithsonianTranscriptionCenter>

On Twitter: @TranscribeSI

Connect with the Smithsonian

Smithsonian Institution: www.si.edu

On Facebook: <https://www.facebook.com/Smithsonian>

On Twitter: @smithsonian