YEARS TO REMEMBER

We have chosen the theme "Years to Remember" for this final volume of THE GUARDIAN. This book represents a composite, historical review of the years 1919-1968, the forty-nine years existence of the Homer G. Phillips Hospital School of Nursing.

As you turn these pages, we hope they will bring back, and enhance many memories of your own experiences as a student nurse at "The G's."

To the Class of 1968, the 1000 graduates of Homer G. Phillips School of Nursing have made it a school of distinction. We hope as you accept the challenge of nursing, you'll be proud to be a Guardian.

The mission of the Smithsonian is the increase and diffusion of knowledge - shaping the future by preserving our heritage, discovering new knowledge, and sharing our resources with the world. Founded in 1846, the Smithsonian is the world's largest museum and research complex, consisting of 19 museums and galleries, the National Zoological Park, and nine research facilities. Become an active part of our mission through the Transcription Center. Together, we are discovering secrets hidden deep inside our collections that illuminate our history and our world.
