The Film

We use various kinds of Visual Aids in our classroom. One we use often is the film. John and Dixon operate our silent 16mm. projector. The class is here viewing a film called "How Transportation Serves Our Community." Harold Jean is interested in how we used various methods of transportation in the early days. Suzanne is looking at an Indian squaw carrying her papoose on her back. That is her way of transporting her baby. Lillian is watching the cars, pusses, trains, boats and airplains that are used in our present day world.

The mission of the Smithsonian is the increase and diffusion of knowledge - shaping the future by preserving our heritage, discovering new knowledge, and sharing our resources with the world. Founded in 1846, the Smithsonian is the world's largest museum and research complex, consisting of 19 museums and galleries, the National Zoological Park, and nine research facilities. Become an active part of our mission through the Transcription Center. Together, we are discovering secrets hidden deep inside our collections that illuminate our history and our world.
