

Smithsonian Institution

Freer Gallery of Art and Arthur M. Sackler Gallery

Charles Lang Freer's letters to Frank Hecker during foreign travels, 1904-1908

Extracted on Oct-22-2021 07:44:40

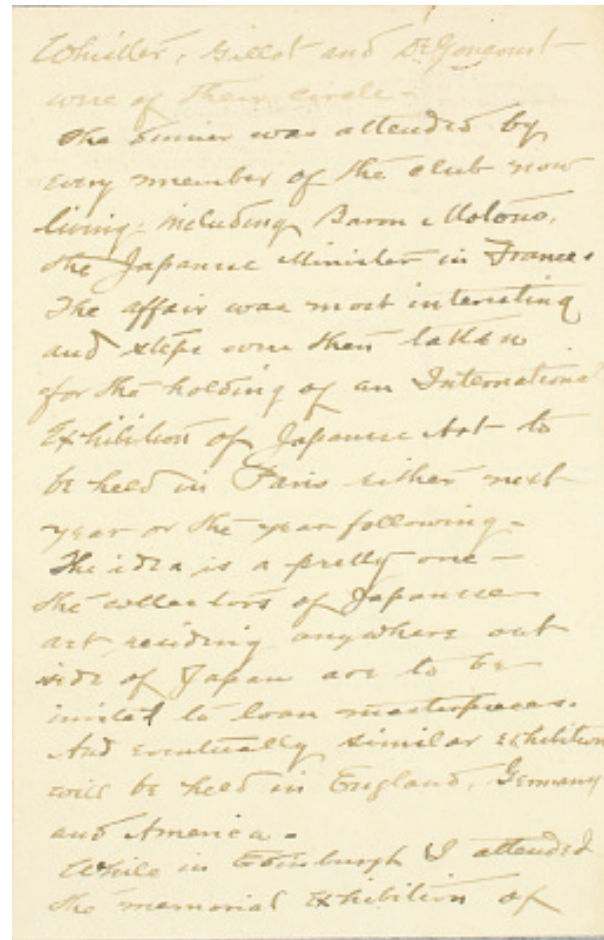

The Smithsonian Institution thanks all digital volunteers that transcribed and reviewed this material. Your work enriches Smithsonian collections, making them available to anyone with an interest in using them.

The Smithsonian Institution (the "Smithsonian") provides the content on this website (transcription.si.edu), other Smithsonian websites, and third-party sites on which it maintains a presence ("SI Websites") in support of its mission for the "increase and diffusion of knowledge." The Smithsonian invites visitors to use its online content for personal, educational and other non-commercial purposes. By using this website, you accept and agree to abide by the following terms.

- If sharing the material in personal and educational contexts, please cite the Freer Gallery of Art and Arthur M. Sackler Gallery as source of the content and the project title as provided at the top of the document. Include the accession number or collection name; when possible, link to the Freer Gallery of Art and Arthur M. Sackler Gallery website.
- If you wish to use this material in a for-profit publication, exhibition, or online project, please contact Freer Gallery of Art and Arthur M. Sackler Gallery or transcribe@si.edu

For more information on this project and related material, contact the Freer Gallery of Art and Arthur M. Sackler Gallery. See this project and other collections in the Smithsonian Transcription Center.

Whistler, Gillot and D E Goncourt - were of their circle -
The Seminar was attended by every member of the club now living McCusing [[?]] Baron [[?]] and Motono. the Japanese Minister in France.
The affair was most interesting and steps were then taken for the holding of an International Exhibition of Japanese Art to be held in Paris either next year or the year following. The idea is a pretty one - the collectors of Japanese art residing anywhere outside of Japan are to be invited to loan masterpieces. And eventually similar exhibitions will be held in England, Germany, and America.
While in Edinburgh I attended the memorial exhibition of Whistler, Gillot and D E Goncourt - were of their circle - The Seminar was attended by every member of the club now living - including Baron & Motono, the Japanese Minister in France.

The affair was most interesting and steps were then taken for the holding of an International Exhibition of Japanese Art to be held in Paris either next year or the year following - The idea is a pretty one - the collectors of Japanese art residing anywhere out side of Japan are to be invited to loan masterpieces.
And eventually similar exhibitions will be held in England, Germany and America -
While in Edinburgh I attended the memorial exhibition of

Charles Lang Freer's letters to Frank Hecker during foreign travels, 1904-1908
Transcribed and Reviewed by Digital Volunteers Extracted Oct-22-2021 07:44:40

Smithsonian Institution

Freer Gallery of Art and Arthur M. Sackler Gallery

The mission of the Smithsonian is the increase and diffusion of knowledge - shaping the future by preserving our heritage, discovering new knowledge, and sharing our resources with the world. Founded in 1846, the Smithsonian is the world's largest museum and research complex, consisting of 19 museums and galleries, the National Zoological Park, and nine research facilities. Become an active part of our mission through the Transcription Center. Together, we are discovering secrets hidden deep inside our collections that illuminate our history and our world.

Join us!

The Transcription Center: <https://transcription.si.edu>

On Facebook: <https://www.facebook.com/SmithsonianTranscriptionCenter>

On Twitter: @TranscribeSI

Connect with the Smithsonian

Smithsonian Institution: www.si.edu

On Facebook: <https://www.facebook.com/Smithsonian>

On Twitter: @smithsonian