My Dear Colonel,

My engagements here have been kept and in ten minutes I shall start for the "Amerika" hoping to enjoy a restful voyage. I have been a little too active lately, and along with a tired feeling generally, I have some trouble with my left foot - a sort of a ulcer which Dr. Adams has just lanced, but which while inconvenient, will, the Dr. says, disappear within a few days. So I am looking forward to a real rest on board. Many thanks for your kind messages. Let me, in turn, wish you and yours a delightful summer.

Always sincerely your friend
Charles L. Freer
