collection. It would be great for the Field or some other American Ethnographical museum!

I have seen a few other private collections some for sale - others not for sale - also all of the recent acquisitions made by the Louvre, Luxembourg, City of Paris and of the bits Decoratif - many of which are interesting but none of them equal in artistic quality to nine pieces of ancient pottery purchased by me from Tabbagh and Kelekian. Details of which are included in papers I am sending Kennedy today -

At your leisure, I wish you
