February 1st

An ancient native family who lived very close to Li Hung Chang, and who after his death pledged their Bronze Collection as collateral for advances, made by Sassoon & Co. must pay interest on Feby. 1st, and from this collection I am buying a few marvels of early bronze. So, although money slips rapidly through my fingers, its equivalent will be hung on to.

[[penciled box is drawn over the rest of the page, with the word "omit" penciled in the center.

Box begins here]]
I have read carefully Mr Loyster's letter and your own kind reference to the Currie matter, and feel that I understand the present situation very clearly. In deciding, in my behalf, to pay 25% of the cost of [[strikeout]] the cost [[/strikeout]] ^[[the]] Hendrie-Newberry intervention you did quite as I would have done had I been at home - another favor for which I am greatly obliged.
