Mr Ridgway:

I find in a pile of old memoranda the enclosed lists which seem to have been lost sight of during my absence in England.

If you will glance them over, and revise to suit present needs, I will see that they receive prompt attention.

The mission of the Smithsonian is the increase and diffusion of knowledge - shaping the future by preserving our heritage, discovering new knowledge, and sharing our resources with the world. Founded in 1846, the Smithsonian is the world's largest museum and research complex, consisting of 19 museums and galleries, the National Zoological Park, and nine research facilities. Become an active part of our mission through the Transcription Center. Together, we are discovering secrets hidden deep inside our collections that illuminate our history and our world.
