Maybe I have a strange idea of "fun" haha BUT if you are super detail-oriented, meticulous about accuracy, and love being able to dig through historic diaries/logbooks/field notes etc. then consider becoming a Smithsonian Digital Volunteer! @TranscribeSI

What a fabulous endorsement! Thanks for all your hard work making @smithsonian collections more accessible #TranscriptionImpact

Have you learned anything/discovered any interesting stories while transcribing? Or have any specific #TranscriptionTips for new #volunpeers?

Smithsonian Transcription Center @TranscribeSI

Ok, now we're getting hungry. So many delightfully (and deliciously) unexpected discoveries in @SmithsonianArch field books. Thanks for sharing @archiventures! Now if only Vernon left us a recipe..... 🍌

Welcome to Twitter! To me the Smithsonian means fabulous people and the friendship, fun and further learning they provide. Through @TranscribeSI and @BioDivLibrary I've made so many friends and learned so much.

Have we mentioned lately that our #volunpeers are amazing? Oh, we have? Well, it still can't be enough. Thank you @SiobhanLeachman for creating and sharing this helpful resource on bee binomials! 🐝

Siobhan @SiobhanLeachman · Oct 18, 2019

For those wanting to transcribe this here's a list of bee binomials I've made from previous projects. Any chance a link to this can be added to the description notes @TranscribeSI @SmithsonianArch? docs.google.com/spreadsheets/d/... You are very welcome! Just sorry I won't be able to help much for a while. I'll try and pop on when I've got wifi in Europe to help review when I can. Good luck #volunpeers as Stelfox's Hymenoptera field notes will help preservation of endangered bees in Ireland.
